COURSE DESCRIPTION FOR:

~DIRECT APPROACH~

"If you and her liked each other right away then there is no need for hours of wasted time that could have led nowhere."

What is the Direct Approach? Imagining going up to a woman and telling her that you like her, that she's beautiful and you want to know her. Not for the faint of heart.

The Direct Approach is a different method of seduction where you let a girl know in no uncertain terms that you like her. If done right and she is intrigued and likes you back, then you have just cut away many hours of dating and trying to figure out if the both of you really like each other. You'll then be moving forward from a better starting point. But if done poorly...well...

Is this really a method? Or is it a technique? The common misconception about the Direct Approach is that it is to approach a woman and tell her you want to sleep with her. Perhaps in cruder language. Out of a hundred women, one is bound to say "yes", right? While this is being direct, this is not the Direct Approach. The Direct Approach requires more comfort and rapport with women and works best when you are both honest and passionate at the same time. You will lead the way and she will follow and in essence, you are sweeping her off her feet and taking her on an incredible adventure.

What the course will do is allow you to make things happen very quickly and start your interactions with women from a higher romantic level.

There is structure to the Direct Approach, a series of things you will do as you watch her very carefully to feel what she feels. The way Seductionboard.com does this is much different from other people's, as we rely more on rapport and charm. After you have shown that you appreciate her, you will try to get a similar response back and from then on, there is no end to the possibility of what may happen next.

Note: This is NOT a beginner's course (see Art of Attraction). In order to do well at the Direct Approach, students must have previous experience with women and know how to read and lead her (we call this calibration).

This approach is unique in and of itself and can be used in combination with other methods. This material bridges the gap between intermediate and advanced seduction.

Length: The Direct Approach is taught hour four hours, which includes two hours of seminar and two hours of infield where the students will try what they learn under the watchful eye of the coach.

You may take only the seminar portion or the entire course.

Cost: The entire Direct Approach course is $375 CND and GST. The Direct Approach seminar portion only is $225 CND and GST.
